Lovell Federal Health Care Center hosts Open House.

NORTH CHICAGO, Ill. – The Capt. James A. Lovell Federal Health Care Center invites the public to an open house on Thursday, May 15, at the facility’s main campus in North Chicago.

Lovell Federal Health Care Center serves Veterans, Active Duty personnel, reservists, military retirees and their beneficiaries. All are welcome to visit the medical center to learn more about their eligibility for the wide-variety of programs and services available. Representatives from the facility’s homeless programs, nutrition services, home-based primary care, adult day care, women’s breast clinic, hospice care and many other programs will be present to answer questions and discuss eligibility.

There also will be information sessions that all are welcome to attend. Dr. Bharat Agrawal, Lovell FHCC’s chief oncologist, will host a session on cancer care. Rebecca Mollett, certified infant massage instructor, will present a class on infant massage and its benefits for babies.

WHAT: Lovell FHCC Open House.

WHEN: 2-5 p.m., Thursday, May 15. Cancer care information session at 3 p.m. Infant massage class at 4 p.m.

WHERE: Lovell FHCC, 3001 Green Bay Rd., North Chicago. Parking available in garage.

WHO: All are invited to attend.

About the Lovell FHCC: Lovell FHCC is the nation’s first fully integrated medical facility between the U.S. Department of Veterans Affairs and the Department of Defense that serves active duty military personnel, their families and Veterans. Lovell FHCC, which is located in North Chicago, operates four Great Lakes Naval Station clinics and three community based outpatient clinics in McHenry and Evanston, Ill. and Kenosha, Wis.
