Lovell FHCC invites veterans to Gateway Technical College brown bag lunch Feb. 8 in Kenosha

Eligible veterans may enroll on-the-spot for services; Veterans Benefits Administration (VBA) representative will be available for questions

NORTH CHICAGO, Ill. – The Capt. James A. Lovell Federal Health Care Center will participate in a brown bag lunch for student veterans at Gateway Technical College, Kenosha, Wis. campus, 11:45 a.m. to 1:30 p.m., Feb. 8.

After his opening remarks, Lovell Federal Health Care Center (FHCC) Director Dr. Stephen Holt will lead a question and answer session with veterans and members of the public about the services available at the Lovell FHCC Kenosha Community Based Outpatient Clinic (CBOC) and at the main hospital in North Chicago, Ill.

A representative from the Veterans Benefits Administration will participate and answer questions. Additionally, eligible veterans may sign up for Department of Veterans Affairs services at the meeting if they have a form DD214 or other proof of their military service.

“I encourage student veterans, in particular, to consider attending and learning more about Lovell FHCC and what we have to offer them at our Kenosha Community Based Outpatient Clinic,” Holt said.
